

CHECK IT OUT!

You will find copies of:

- Local college prospectuses and application forms
- Higher education prospectuses and application forms
- Information on how to get a new job
- Information on a wide range of different occupations
- And much more . . .

For more information visit your local Information, Advice & Guidance (IAG) centre. It is open throughout the year including school and college holidays.

It's your INFORMATION, ADVICE & GUIDANCE LIBRARY

CHECK IT OUT NOW!

Introduction to the
IAG library

ARE YOU . . .

- Planning a complete career change?
- Unsure how to get back into education or training?
- Puzzled about all the different options available?
- Keen to find out the best course and university for you?
- Looking for hints about job hunting?
- Interested in your rights and how the law affects you?
- Keen to find out how sports, voluntary work and other activities can help you and where you can do them?

. . . then use your

IAG LIBRARY!

WHAT'S IN IT?

Whether you know exactly what you want or just to browse to get some bright ideas for your future, the IAG library is a good place to start looking.

You can find . . .

Job and Training Information

what a job involves, what the entry requirements are and what training is available.

Course Information

courses at local adult education centres, training centres and colleges, and at universities and colleges around the country.

Also

student finance, benefits, other sources of funding, job hunting, voluntary work, returning to education or employment after a break and a lot more.

ON COMPUTER

In the IAG library you may find some of the following: